

K-Love radio has a tremendous impact on our family and community. It would be a huge loss to have this radio station displaced by an LFPM broadcaster. It provides wholesome programming that we can trust for children's ears. This community and others around the country would be adversely affected by the loss of this radio option.

Thank you for your consideration.